Treatibles Fact Sheet/2-2-2

Company History:

In 2008 Treatibles Founder and CEO, Julianna Carella established Auntie Dolores, one of the first five medical cannabis brands in California. Soon after, clients began asking if they could give Auntie Dolores products to their ailing pets. In 2013 Treatibles was born, blazing a trail as the pioneer in creating hemp-derived CBD products for pets. With a passion to help pets thrive, Julianna Carella founded both companies on the values of compassionate care, quality ingredients, reliable information and integrity. These principles continue to guide the corporate culture.
